

William Christenberry, American, b. 1936
Untitled, 2006 (June 11)
 German ink with two brushes in tandem on paper, 40 x32
 Courtesy of the artist and Hemphill Fine Arts,
 Washington DC

october '07

■ Forming American Identities Colloquia

Throughout the fall and spring the Museum presents colloquia that explore themes presented in our special exhibitions focusing on American identities and our Southern legacy. The series begins on October 5 with Natsu Taylor Saito and continues with Carmenita Higginbotham, and Jane Gaines on the 30th.

The new media gallery will offer showings at 1 and 3 pm of the 1920 silent film Within Our Gates.

■ Back by Popular Demand: Family Art JAMs

October 6 kicks off our series of Family Art JAMs. These popular Saturday afternoon programs offer young artists and their families/caregivers opportunities to tour special exhibitions and make art related to them. Ages 4–7 come 1–3 pm, ages 7–14, 3–5 pm. Call for details, 434.243.2050.

■ Calling Parents for the Art Print Workshop

If you are a parent interested in increasing art appreciation in the elementary schools, come to this once-a-year workshop on Monday, October 8, 10–11:30 am. We'll teach you how to effectively use art prints in classrooms. The workshop is co-sponsored by the Piedmont Arts Council. RSVP to 434.243.2050.

sunday	monday	tuesday	wednesday	thursday	friday	saturday
	1	2	3	4	5	6
Continuing— Photography from the Collection Through Oct. 28 Gorky Through Oct. 28			Docent Education 9:30 – 11:30 am Last day— A Decade of Collecting Sculpture from the Collection	Lecture on Gorky by Dore Ashton 5:30 pm Campbell Hall 160	Forming American Identities Colloquium: Natsu Taylor Saito 5:30 pm Co-sponsored by The Bridge	Reading Day Family Art JAM Make Your Mark: Exploring the Drawings of Arshile Gorky RSVP 243.2050
7 Reading Day	8 Columbus Day Reading Day Art Print Workshop 10–11:30 am	9 Reading Day	10	11	12	13
14	15	16	17 Docent Education 9:30 – 11:30 am	18	19 Opens— William Christenberry: Site/Possession	20
21	22 Writer's Eye begins Through Dec. 21	23	24	25	26 Gladys S. Blizzard Lecture: Gallery Talk by William Christenberry in the Museum 4:30 pm Final Friday 5:30 – 7:30 pm	27 Family Weekend Student Docent Tours and Reception 1–5 pm
28 Last day— Photography from the Collection Gorky	29	30 Forming American Identities Colloquium Cinematic Representations Birth of a Nation & Within Our Gates 5:30 pm	31 Halloween

Don't miss our Blizzard Lecture with William Christenberry on October 26.