INDIVIDUAL SCHOOLS, THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA’S COLLEGE AT WISE, AND CENTERS

Schools, College at Wise, Centers and Institutes, and Library

The University has 11 schools plus The University of Virginia’s College at Wise (the College at Wise) located in southwest Virginia. The deans of 10 schools report to the provost, who is the chief academic officer of the University, while the dean of the School of Medicine reports to the executive vice president for health affairs. The Chancellor of the College at Wise reports to the president.

This section begins with aggregate information on the schools: proportional sources of funding by school, enrollment by school, and trend data on faculty across the University, followed by information on each of the 11 schools of the University, the Library, the College at Wise, and major centers and institutes.

Budget sources are reported in thousands.

Glossary

A&P – Administrative and Professional
PRS – Professional and Research Staff
SCPS – School of Continuing and Professional Studies
SEAS – School of Engineering and Applied Science
SOM – School of Medicine
SON – School of Nursing
TTT – Tenured and Tenure-Track
UVAMC – University of Virginia Medical Center
Current Distribution of All Academic Faculty by School & Type

Academic Faculty by School, Fall 2016

Notes: Total N=2,719; this graph includes all salaried academic faculty, including those with temporary administrative appointments.

Academic Faculty by School, and by Type (General vs. Tenured & Tenure Track), Fall 2016

Notes: Total N=2,719; this graph includes all salaried academic faculty, including those with temporary administrative appointments.

The academic general faculty is also sometimes referred to as Non-tenure-track (NTT) and/or tenure ineligible.
Tenured & Tenure Track Faculty Turnover Rates by Reason (Retirement/Resignation), and Year, Fall 2007- Fall 2016

In 2007 the total tenured & tenure track faculty population was 1,478 which grew by 7% (n=99) to 1,577 in 2016.

General Faculty Turnover Rates by Reason (Retirement/Resignation), and Year, 2007-2016

Rates include only salaried academic general faculty members and thus does not include faculty in the School of Cont. & Prof. Studies.

In 2007 the academic General Faculty population was 684 which grew by 27% (n=182) to 866 in 2016. The academic general faculty is also sometimes referred to as Non-tenure-track (NTT) and/or tenure ineligible.
Aging of the Academic Faculty

Distribution of Tenured & Tenure Track Faculty by Broad Age and Year, 1986-2016

Distribution of General Faculty by Broad Age and Year, 1986-2016

Rates only include only salaried academic general faculty members and thus does not include faculty in the School of Cont. & Prof. Studies. The academic general faculty is also sometimes referred to as non-tenure-track (NTT) and/or tenure ineligible.