Megan K. Lowe

Megan has worked for the past 19 years at the University of Virginia in the office of the Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer (EVP-COO), starting as a doctoral intern and serving currently as the Assistant Vice President and Chief of Staff. In this role, Megan oversees the operation and management of the EVP-COO Office and serves as the liaison to the areas reporting to the EVP-COO. Megan is responsible for the oversight of the University’s Policy Office and for programmatic aspects of AccessUVa, the University's financial aid program.

Raised in Northern California, Megan received a Bachelor of Arts in Public Policy from Washington and Lee University in 1991, and a Master of Public Administration with an emphasis in public policy analysis from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1994. She came to Charlottesville to attend the University of Virginia, and completed graduate coursework in the doctoral program for Higher Education Administration in the Curry School of Education.

Megan has served on the boards of the Charlottesville chapter of the American Cancer Society and Madison House. She has volunteered within the Charlottesville-Albemarle area through Literacy Volunteers of America, the Shelter for Help in Emergency, and Covenant and Brownsville Elementary Schools.

She and her husband, Doug Lowe, live in Crozet, Virginia. They have five children – four sons and one daughter – ranging in ages from 6 to 25.
