

Questions about the War on Drugs?

Hear Neill Franklin of Law Enforcement Against Prohibition (LEAP)

Monday, November 16
8:00 pm
Minor 125

Maj. Neill Franklin, a 32-year law enforcement veteran, retired from the Maryland state Police in 1999 where he held the position of commander for the Bureau of Drug and Criminal Enforcement.

"It pains me to know that there is a solution for preventing tragedy and nothing is being done because of ignorance, stubbornness, unsubstantiated fear and greed."
– Neill Franklin

FOA for alcohol OR personal health & safety

Sponsored by ADAPT, Students for Sensible Drug Policy & the student American Civil Liberties Union chapter

Substance Abuse Awareness Week 2009

Don't let the pre-game erase your last U.Va. home football game

4 out of 5 fourth-years don't attempt the 4th year 5th