

Legal Issues in the Struggle Against Terror
John Norton Moore & Robert F. Turner, eds.

DRAFT TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface

Professors John Norton Moore & Robert F. Turner

The Legal Regime for Detainees

Mr. David Graham

Military Commissions in the Struggle Against Terror

Maj. Gen John Altenburg (USA, Ret.)

Habeas Corpus and the Detention of Enemy Combatants

Hon. James Terry

U.S. Constitutional Issues in the Struggle Against Terror

Prof. Robert F. Turner

National Security, Litigation, and the State Secrets Privilege

Prof. Robert Chesney

Civil Liberties in the Struggle Against Terror

Dean Elizabeth Rindskopf Parker

"Hate Propaganda" and National Security

Prof. Robert O'Neil

Civil Litigation Against Terrorism

Prof. John Norton Moore

U.S. Intelligence and the War on Terror

Prof. Fred Hitz

A New Recipe for Renditions and Extractions

Prof. John Radsan

Homeland Security, Information Policy and the Transatlantic Alliance

Stewart A. Baker
Nathan Alexander Sales

The Relations Between Military and Civilian Authorities Within the United States

Captain Kurt Johnson, JAGC, USN
Professor Kevin Cieply
Lieutenant Col. Jeanne Meyer, USAF

Jus ad Bellum in the Struggle Against Terror

Walter Gary Sharp

Jus in Bello in the Struggle Against Terror

Prof. Hays Parks

Legal Issues of Outsourcing Military Functions in Wartime

Spike Bowman

Immigration and the Struggle Against Terror

LTC Margaret Stock

Dealing with the Nuclear Threat in the Struggle Against Terror

Dr. Robert L. Pfalzgraff, Jr.

Bioviolence: Facing the Prevention Challenge

Prof. Barry Kellman

Cyber-Terrorism: Legal and Policy Issues

Col. Jeffrey Addicott

