

Section 25

Miscellaneous Fees, 2005

In the 2005 questionnaire, local governments were asked to specify any miscellaneous charges or fees that fell outside of the scope of the questions in the survey. The answers given are suggestive but do not provide an exhaustive listing of the types and number of fees imposed. Many local governments undoubtedly impose fees and charges that were not shown by them when they returned our questionnaire. The answers they did provide are included in Table 25.1.

Table 25.1 furnishes the responses of the 18 cities, 34 counties, and 29 towns that reported miscellaneous fees. The table includes the type of fee imposed, the amount of the fee, and the schedule, if any, that applies to fee payment. Fees that were described include beverage fees, zoning and building permits, utility deposits, boating and fishing licenses, dog licenses, library cards, electrical permits, photocopy charges, parking tickets, kennel fees, sign permits, map fees, dealers' license fees, and a variety of other fees that could not be fully categorized in terms of the other sections of the survey.
