

Section 14

Business, Professional, and Occupational License Tax, 2007

In fiscal year 2006, the business, professional and occupational license tax accounted for 6.8 percent of tax revenue for cities, 4.1 percent for counties, and 12.2 percent for large towns. These are averages; the relative importance of the tax varies for individual cities, counties, and towns. For information on individual localities, see Appendix D.

Localities are authorized to impose a local license tax on businesses, professions, and occupations operating within their jurisdictions unless they already levy a tax on merchants' capital.<sup>1</sup> This tax, commonly referred to as the BPOL tax, is sanctioned by §§ 58.1-3700 through 58.1-3735 of the Code.

County BPOL taxes do not apply within the limits of an incorporated town unless the town grants the county authority to do so (§ 58.1-3711). The BPOL tax is used by all of the 39 cities and 45 of the 95 counties. The tax is also widely used by incorporated towns; 126 reported using the BPOL tax. The specific localities that impose the tax are listed in Table 14.1.

Most localities charge a fee to all businesses for the issuance of a license. Many localities have established a license tax threshold. Those businesses whose gross receipts are above the threshold usually pay a tax rate of a certain number of cents per $100 of gross receipts, instead of a license fee. Each business classification such as retail or contracting, has a specific tax rate which cannot exceed maximums set by the state guidelines. Businesses pay the tax rate for the amount of gross receipts within each classification.

Although new guidelines in January 1997 made administration of the BPOL tax more uniform in terms of due dates, penalties, interest, appeals, definitions of situs, and distribution of gross receipts, localities have retained some flexibility. In 2000, the 1997 guidelines were updated. They are viewable on the Department of Taxation's internet site, <http://www.tax.virginia.gov/site.cfm?alias=Publications> (8/22/2007). Localities may still determine how many separate licenses they issue to a business and whether or not they charge a fee for each business location or only one fee for a business with multiple locations. Some localities charge no fee at all or charge different fees depending on a firm's gross receipts. For example, some have a minimum license tax of $30. If a business with gross receipts below the threshold were required to pay a tax of $18 based on its gross receipts, the business would be charged the minimum of $30 instead. In addition, there are some localities that impose both a license fee and a tax rate on businesses above the threshold. The Code of Virginia establishes the dates between March 1 and May 1 as the time by which businesses must apply for a license.

Table 14.1 shows information regarding due dates, license fees, and thresholds. Table 14.2 shows specific fee amounts and major business classification tax rates for each locality. Six cities, seven counties, and 13 towns reported also charging a license fee, or levying a BPOL tax, on businesses renting real property.<sup>2</sup>

An overview of the general practices of Virginia localities is shown in the text table. It shows the median license fees and median gross receipts tax rate for cities, counties, and towns. If a locality reported different fees due to differences in total gross receipts, the median figures were calculated using the lowest fee amount given. The calculation uses the highest tax rate which would be charged on businesses in the gross receipts range just above the threshold, since rates tend to decrease with increasing gross receipts. If different rates are applied within a business category, such as different rates for financial services and for professional services, the average of the rates within that category was used.

For localities that base wholesalers' tax rates on gross receipts rather than on purchases of goods for sale, the rate was multiplied by 1.25, based on the assumption that purchases are 80 percent of gross receipts.<sup>3</sup> Only the localities

<sup>3</sup> The ratio was calculated from Internal Revenue Service national data for 2002 showing that wholesale corporations with net income reported the cost of goods sold was 80 percent of business receipts. See: Internal Revenue Service, Statistics of income, Corporation Returns with Net Income, 2002, Table 7, http://www.irs.gov/taxstats/bustaxstats/article/0,,id=96388,00.html#\_bm3 (10/24/2007). For example, assuming purchases are 80 percent of gross receipts, then a firm with $100,000 of purchases would have gross receipts of $125,000. A $.04 per $100 tax on purchases would yield $40. A $.04 tax per $100 on gross receipts would yield $50, an amount 1.25 times greater.

that reported a fee or a tax rate in a particular category were included in the calculation of the median.

The median for the license fee, which is generally imposed only upon businesses below the gross receipts tax threshold, is $50.00 for the cities and $30 for the counties and towns. Many localities with no tax threshold charge a minimum tax, for example, $30. In such a case, a license fee is not charged, but most businesses would pay at least $30 in the form of a minimum tax.

The median tax rates for the cities match the maximum rates permitted by the state—$0.16 per $100 of gross receipts for contracting; $0.20 for retail; $0.36 for repair, personal, and business services; and $0.58 for financial, real estate, and professional services. Although some individual counties and towns may charge the maximum rate within a category, the median figures are less than those of the cities.

The median rate of $0.12 on wholesalers for cities is well above the state maximum of $0.05 per $100 of purchases. Many cities presume to operate under grandfather clauses that allow them to impose higher rates. The median rate on wholesalers for counties and towns was $0.05 per $100.

Table 14.3 lists taxes and fees on peddlers and itinerant merchants. All of the cities, 46 counties, and 106 towns reported some form of tax on peddlers. Annual fees charged by cities for retail peddling range anywhere from $10 to $500. Taxes on retail itinerant merchants and wholesale peddlers range from $30 to $500, with cities charging according to gross receipts and others' gross purchases. Annual charges by counties range from a $1 minimum fee to $500, while towns charge anywhere from $1 per month to $500 per year.
