

UVa Center for Russian, East European, and Eurasian Studies presents:

Tadeusz Gronowski, 1924

SPRING 2017 POLISH LECTURE SERIES:

POLAND AND THE WORLD

Thursday, March 2, 5 p.m., Center for Global Inquiry and Innovation, Hotel A

“The East is Red? Imagining China in People’s Poland and East Germany”

David Tompkins, Associate Professor of History, Carleton College

Thursday, March 30, 5 p.m., Center for Global Inquiry and Innovation, Hotel A

“The Sixties Behind the Iron Curtain: Youth Culture and the Global Sixties in Poland”

Malgorzata Fidelis, Associate Professor of History, University of Illinois at Chicago

Organized and sponsored by GREEES as part of the UVa Polish Lecture Series.

Co-sponsored by the Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures, the Corcoran Department of History, and the Center for German Studies, with special thanks to the Center for Global Inquiry and Innovation.