

Japanese Placement Test
University of Virginia
Fall 2009

You must take both a written test and sit for an oral interview.

Japanese Placement Test

When: August 24, 2009

Written: 10am-12pm

Oral: Begins at 12:30pm

Cabell B031 (basement of the New Cabell Hall)

The sign up sheet for the oral interview will be posted on BO13 on August 21st.

All interested students must take both the written and oral test on the given date and time. A sign-up sheet for the oral interview will be available on the office door of Cabell B013 (Marshall/Sato's office) on August 21st. However, students can sign-up for oral interviews the morning of August 24th, before the written exam begins.

Who Should Take This Test:

- ❖ Students who have taken Japanese in high school, summer courses, or abroad and want to continue Japanese at UVa.
- ❖ Students who were brought up in Japan and studied Japanese informally and want to continue Japanese at UVa.

What Is Expected in the Test?

A two-hour written test and a five-minute oral interview.
