

Call for Nominations

The University of Virginia Provost Employee Communications Council is seeking nominations for classified staff members interested in serving. Nominations are sought for vacancies in the following areas: three (3) representatives in the Engineering School; four (4) representatives in the College of Arts & Sciences; one (1) representative in the School of Continuing and Professional Studies; three (3) representatives for Alderman Library; two (2) representatives in All Other Provost Units; and one (1) representative in the Law School.

The Provost Employee Communications Council represents full and part-time classified employees. The Council exists to represent the interests of classified staff to the University and to advise the University on matters pertaining to classified staff. Meetings are held on the second Wednesday of each month (except for the month of August when there is no scheduled meeting). For more information about the Provost Employee Communications Council, please refer to our website at: <http://minerva.acc.virginia.edu/%7Eemployee/>

To be eligible to serve, nominees must have held a classified position for the past 12 months and be willing to serve on the Council for a two-year term.

Please submit nominations to Annamarie Black, Elections Chair. You may submit your nomination of electronic mail (ab3f@virginia.edu) using this form. Nominations should be received no later than June 7, 2002 to be considered. You may nominate yourself or someone else.
