The Foundation for Enhancing Communities, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, announces a program of major architecture scholarship

The Joseph L. and Vivian E. Steele Fund of The Foundation for Enhancing Communities designates its income to assist the scholarship of students presently following, or transferring into, an academic program of architecture at the Undergraduate or graduate level. Grant awards are to be used to underwrite students' scholarship tuition and fees.

To be eligible, students must be in the final three years of a Bachelor of Architecture degree, or be enrolled in a graduate program leading to a Master of Architecture degree.

The Advisory Panel of The Joseph L. and Vivian E. Steele Fund is comprised of leading architects from Central Pennsylvania region, the home of Joseph and Vivian Steele. The Advisory Panel reviews formal applications and recommends the recipients of scholarship awards based on the merit of an applicant's academic accomplishments, as well as a determination of financial need.

Applicants to the Steele Fund must be a present or former resident of one of the following counties of Central Pennsylvania: Adams, Bedford, Blair, Centre, Clinton, Cumberland, Dauphin, Franklin, Fulton, Huntingdon, Juniata, Lancaster, Lebanon, Lycoming, Mifflin, Montour, Northumberland, Perry, Snyder, Tioga, Union or York.

The application procedure is a two-stage process and must be followed for all scholarship requests:

Qualification

Potential applicants are invited to submit an initial qualification form which is reviewed by Foundation staff to determine the students' eligibility for award. Qualified candidates are then notified of their status and invited to submit a detailed and formal application for consideration by the Advisory Panel. Qualification forms must be submitted by May 15.

Formal Application

Qualified candidates are provided the materials necessary to submit a portfolio, letters of application and reference, and additional documentation in formal application for scholarship funds. Expenses incurred by applicants in the preparation of their portfolios are reimbursed by the Steele Fund, up to $100. Formal applications must be received by the deadline date of June 30.

If you wish to apply for scholarship funds, please contact The Foundation for Enhancing Communities at the address listed below or you may call or email. We will be glad to provide greater detail on the scholarship process, and forward the necessary application forms:
