

INSTITUTE FOR HUMANE STUDIES
AT GEORGE MASON UNIVERSITY

Please Post Enclosed Flyers

Scholarships and Internships

For almost 50 years, the Institute for Humane Studies at George Mason University has helped undergraduate and graduate students interested in individual liberty pursue their intellectual interests and career goals.

We are now accepting applications for our scholarships of up to $15,000 and for our paid internships programs in public policy, journalism, and production.

Please help us inform your students by posting the enclosed flyers throughout your department. More information is on our redesigned website, www.TheIHS.org.

Feel free to contact me at kanderson@theihs.org if you have questions or suggestions, or if you would like more flyers.

Thank you,

Keri Anderson
Student Coordinator
Institute for Humane Studies
www.TheIHS.org

PAID INTERNSHIP

INTERN FOR LIBERTY

FILM & PRODUCTION,
JOURNALISM, or PUBLIC POLICY

All internships offer:

- Stipend for 8–10 weeks
- Weeklong Career Workshops
- Housing Assistance and Travel Scholarships
- Industry Experience

Application Deadlines

Spring: November 15

Summer: January 31

Fall: July 1

The Institute for Humane Studies is looking for students and recent graduates passionate about individual rights and economic freedom for paid internships. Placements available across the country. All majors are welcome to apply.

www.TheIHS.org/liberty