A. FINANCIAL AID REQUEST

Loan periods are Summer/Fall and Spring/Summer. Students are eligible for up to $20,500 in Stafford Loans during each loan period. Up to $8,500 of the Stafford loan may be subsidized (Federal government pays the interest while in school). The remainder will be unsubsidized (Student is responsible for the interest while in school). Students may receive the difference between the budget and other resources, including Stafford Loans, with a Graduate PLUS loan or a private loan. For more information about Federal loans, go to http://www.virginia.edu/financialaid/loans.php. Please indicate a specific amount.

PLEASE NOTE: Your total financial aid package, including private loans and outside assistance CANNOT exceed your total cost of attendance.

B. NON-UNIVERSITY AWARDS

You must notify Student Financial Services if you receive a non-University award. Non-University awards include all funds awarded by agencies other than our office. They include Employer Tuition Benefits/Reimbursements, and any scholarships awarded by corporations, professional or civic organizations, etc. Federal regulations prohibit students from receiving financial aid from any source that exceeds the student's total educational costs. Therefore, your financial aid package may be reduced accordingly.

 IMPORTANT NOTICE *****

University policy and federal regulations stipulate that full-time graduate students must earn at least the full-time hours after two consecutive awarding periods before becoming eligible for the subsequent loan maximum amount of $20,500. Graduate students must maintain a minimum 3.00 GPA. An award period is typically fall and spring semesters, but can be different if the student attends summer school. Master's Degree Candidates may receive financial aid for up to nine (9) semesters. Those who enroll for more than the maximum number of semesters will require approval from their advisor or dean before receiving financial aid.
