

You are invited to attend

Rivanna Watershed Symposium

sponsored by the Rivanna Watershed Center with support from the Environmental Support Center coordinated by the Institute for Environmental Negotiation

Saturday, February 16, 2002
8:30 am - 4:00 pm

Campbell Hall, University of Virginia,
Charlottesville

The Rivanna Watershed Symposium is a gathering of organizations and interested parties specializing in the conservation and management of water resources to discuss the results of the Rivanna Watershed Needs Assessment (RWNA) and to assess opportunities for improving and expanding protection of the Rivanna River and its watershed.

(see Final Report for more details).

Please RSVP by Tuesday, February 5th to John Hoover at (434) 924-0285 or email jh4pd@virginia.edu

1-3 representations per organization

Snow Date: Saturday, February 23, 2002

Symposium	David Hirschman	Albemarle County Water Resources Manager, Dept. of Engineering & Public Works
	John Hermsmeier	Environmental Education Center
	Donna Bennett	League of Women Voters, Natural Resources Subcommittee
Steering	Steve Pence	Rivanna Conservation Society
	Angus Murdoch	Rivanna Conservation Society
	Leslie Middleton	Rivanna Watershed Center
Committee	Harrison Rue	Thomas Jefferson Planning District Commission
	Rochelle Garwood	Thomas Jefferson Planning District Commission

Directions

Enclosures: RWNA Phase I Final Report, Symposium agenda