

POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY, POLICY & LAW
Application for Admission, 2010

What you need to submit with your application:

1. An official transcript from the Registrar;
2. One confidential letter of recommendation, preferably from a UVA faculty member. The recommender must know you well enough to speak informatively about your academic potential. The letter is to be given to you in a signed, sealed envelope which you will include with the other application items;
3. An essay you have previously written for a course, preferably with the instructor's comments and evaluation included.
4. A brief (no more than two page) essay explaining why you wish to pursue a PPL major, what you hope to achieve from it, and your current ideas about what sort of research project you will undertake during your fourth year.
5. This application form;
6. Useful but not required: your resume or CV.

To receive full consideration, we must have all of these no later than Friday, March 5, (the day before Spring break), although we reserve the right to accept late submissions until the entry class is chosen. Mail or hand deliver your application to:

Loren Lomasky
