AWARDS

- Debbie Snow has been awarded the University's 2009 Outstanding Contribution Award. Debbie is one of only 10 employees so honored at the University—5 in the School of Medicine and 5 total in Architecture, Comm, Darden, Education, Engineering, Arts & Sciences, Law, Continuing and Professional Studies, and Batten. This is the highest level of recognition at the University, which a staff member can receive. She will receive a check in the amount of $1,000 and an engraved memento.
- Corrie Hurtt has been awarded a Pre-doctoral NRSA fellowship from the National Institutes of Health.

PUBLICATION

MEDIA MENTION

UNIVERSITY in NUMBERS

A look at the University's Sources of Operating Budget for the Fiscal Year 2008-2009

The operating budgets for July 1, 2008 through June 30, 2009, for all divisions of the University of Virginia total $2.2 billion. Of the total budget, $1.2 billion relates to the Academic Division, $980.1 million to the Medical Center, and $34.1 million to the University of Virginia’s College at Wise.
EVENTS of the WEEK

Monday, April 6, 2009

• Developmental Lunch, 12:00pm-1:15pm, GIL 225
  Jennifer Heliste, The Positive Side of Peer Influence: Effects of Peers on Adolescent Substance Use

Tuesday, April 7, 2009

• Social Lunch, 12:30pm-1:45pm, GIL B001
  Erin Whitchurch, When Honesty Isn’t the Best Policy: The Effects of Uncertainty on Attraction

Wednesday, April 8, 2009

• Cognitive Lunch: 12:30pm-1:45pm, GIL 225
  Janet Palmer
• Neuroscience and Behavior Lunch: 12:30pm-2pm, GIL B001
  Rachel Kay

Thursday, April 9, 2009

• Quantitative Area Lunch (DADA): 12:30pm-1:45pm, GIL 225
  Jeff Spies
Friday, April 10, 2009

- Clinical Lunch: 12pm-1pm, GIL 225
  Richard Bonnie, LL.B
- Dissertation Proposal Defense, 1:30pm, Bio/Psych Library's Sunroom
  Erin Whitchurch, When Honesty Isn’t the Best Policy: The Positive Effects of Uncertainty on Attraction