Social Entrepreneurship & Related Courses

UNDERGRADUATE

Social Entrepreneurship (open to undergraduates of all majors and years):
PPOL 3050/EDLF 3050/ GDS 3050 - Introduction to Social Entrepreneurship
PPOL 4730/EDLF 4730/ GDS 4730 - Field Course in Local Social Entrepreneurship
PPOL 4735/EDLF 4735/ GDS 4735 - Field Course in Global Social Entrepreneurship

Related
COMM 1800 Making Business Work
COMM 2010 Introduction to Financial Accounting
COMM 2020 Introduction to Managerial Accounting
COMM 4680 Entrepreneurship
COMM 4681 Entrepreneurship Track Capstone
ANTH 2590 Anthropology of Business

SOC 3470 Sociology of Development
STS 2500 Engineers as Entrepreneurs
PLCP 4652 Markets, Inequality, and the Politics of Development
ARCH 2150 Global Sustainability
GDS 2559 Introduction to Global Development Studies
RELG 2630 Business, Ethics, and Society

J-term
EVSC 1050/STS 250 Ethics, Protocols and Practices of International Research

Non-credit
McIntire Business Institute non-degree program for fundamental business skills and perhaps the MS Commerce graduate program, as well (only liberal arts majors can apply).

For First Years:
USEM So you want to be an Entrepreneur (2 credits)

For Commerce Students:
COMM 4821 Managing Sustainable Development

For Engineering Students:
CS 4501 Service Learning Practicum
ENGR 1559 Business Fundamentals for Engineers
GRADUATE
Social Entrepreneurship
GBUS 8306  Social Responsibility and Entrepreneurship

Related
GBUS 8478  Markets in Human Hope (Warnock)
GBUS 7613  Sustainable Innovation and Entrepreneurship (Larson)
GBUS 8463  Business and Sustainability (Brownlee)
EDLF 8400  Program Evaluation Design (Heinecke)
GBUS  Creative Capitalism (Freeman)
PPOL xxxx  Introduction to Development Policy (Braitwaite)