Course Offering Directory

EDIS 289: Strategies for Academic Achievement

Instruction in multiple strategies for analyzing, planning, and completing academic tasks. Guidance in appropriate application and adaptation of general procedures of study to requirements and materials of specific courses. Focus on continual implementation, refinement, and evaluation of strategies to ensure that study habits are effective and efficient.

Prerequisite: Instructor permission.