

Office of Admission

June, 2008

The Office of Admission offers information sessions for prospective students and their families. These briefings, led by the deans of admission, are immediately followed by student life focused tours of the University Grounds led by undergraduate University Guide Service members. No reservations are necessary. Sessions and tours are accessible to persons using wheelchairs. To request an interpreter for the hearing impaired, call us in advance. Please note that for the safety and security of our students, walking tours will not go inside residence halls.

Directions & Locations

Central Grounds Parking Garage

Located beneath the University Bookstore at 400 Emmet Street South, Charlottesville, VA 22904. Additional visitor parking is also available at University Hall (if the Central Grounds Parking Garage is full). To arrive on Central Grounds from University Hall, take the Blue Bus Route (free and runs every 15 minutes) and alight at the Chapel.

The Newcomb Hall Theater

Located in the basement of Newcomb Hall. From the top floor of the Central Grounds Parking Garage (The Bookstore), walk across the brick courtyard and through the white double doors of Newcomb Hall. The entrance to the theater will be just to your left.

The Newcomb Hall Ballroom

Located on the third floor of Newcomb Hall. From the top floor of the Central Grounds Parking Garage (The Bookstore), walk across the brick courtyard and through the white double doors of Newcomb Hall. Walk to the end of the hallway and ascend the stairs to your left until you cannot go any further up. The Ballroom will be to your left .

Peabody Hall

A short walk from the Central Grounds Visitors' Parking Garage. From the top floor of the garage, walk across the brick courtyard and up the outside steps to your right and adjacent to Newcomb Hall. At the top of the stairs, follow the sidewalk straight ahead. The building to your left is Peabody Hall, which houses the Office of Admission. There is a blue sign in front of the building. If you have difficulty accessing steps and prefer to take an elevator, please use this alternate route. From the top floor of the Central Grounds Visitors' Parking Garage, walk across the brick courtyard and through the white double doors of Newcomb Hall. Walk down the hallway in front of you, and turn right into a smaller hallway. Take the elevator (on your right) to the third floor. Leave Newcomb Hall on the third floor and walk to the building located directly behind Newcomb Hall. This is Peabody Hall, which houses the Office of Admission. You can enter through the front door on the opposite side of the building.

The Rotunda

Centrally located on University Grounds, marking the north side of the University Lawn and Jefferson's Academical Village. From the Office of Admission, walk across McCormick Road to the row of colonnaded brick buildings (called the West Range). Walk down the West Range to your left. At the end of the Range turn to your right taking a sidewalk (before you reach the University Chapel) to the east side of the Lawn. Continue on the bricked path below the Lawn level and look for the sign indicating the entrance to the Rotunda.

The University Chapel

Located across McCormick Road from the Office of Admission. From the Office of Admission, walk across McCormick Road to the row of colonnaded brick buildings (called the West Range). Walk down the West Range to your left. The Chapel will straight ahead.
