Required Essays for First-Year Applicants Only (attach printed essays to this form):

1. We are looking for passionate students to join our diverse community of scholars, researchers, and artists. Answer the question that corresponds to the school you selected above. Limit your answer to a half page or roughly 250 words.

College of Arts & Sciences: What work of art, music, science, mathematics, or literature has surprised, unsettled, or challenged you, and in what way?

Engineering: Discuss experiences that led you to choose an engineering education at U.Va. and the role that scientific curiosity plays in your life.

Architecture: What led you to apply to the School of Architecture?

Nursing: Discuss experiences that led you to choose the School of Nursing.

2. Answer one of the following questions in a half page or roughly 250 words:

What is your favorite word and why?

Describe the world you come from and how that world shaped who you are.

Discuss something you secretly like but pretend not to, or vice versa.

“We might say that we were looking for global schemas, symmetries, universal and unchanging laws – and what we have discovered is the mutable, the ephemeral, the complex.” Support or challenge Nobel Prize winner Ilya Prigogine’s assertion.

Transfer Applicants Only:

You must email a list of your current college coursework through the current term/semester to transferadmission@virginia.edu.

Include course names and descriptions.

1. Are you applying under the terms of the Guaranteed Admission Agreement between Virginia community colleges and U.Va.?

Required Essays for Transfer Applicants Only (attach printed essays to this form):

1. How do the possible career or professional plans you indicated on the Common Application relate to your planned course of study?

If you are applying to the College of Arts & Sciences and are undecided about your major, indicate your general area of interest.

If you are applying to the Architecture, Commerce, Education, Engineering, or Nursing Schools, tell us why you have chosen this field and what experiences (work, internships, etc.) have prepared you for it.

If you are applying to the Five-Year Teacher Education Program, indicate your academic major within the College of Arts & Sciences and your intended teaching area (e.g., elementary education, secondary education).

2. Since you graduated from high school, have there been periods of time (other than summer vacations) when you were not enrolled in college? Do you plan to spend the Spring term away from your current college or university? If the answer to either of these questions is yes, please describe, in chronological order, your activities or employment during these periods.

3. Answer one of the following essay questions. Limit your response to one page.

Stephen Hawking asked the question, “What is the probability of life existing elsewhere in the universe?” in his public lecture, “Life in the Universe.” If life does, in fact, exist elsewhere in the universe and you could send one thing to represent the human race, what would it be and why would you choose it?

If you could have dinner with three people, living or dead or fictional, who would they be and why would you select them?

What issue of local, national, or international significance concerns you? Why?

Application for Virginia In-State Educational Privileges

Submit the Application for Virginia In-State Educational Privileges ONLY if you believe you are eligible for in-state privileges pursuant to the Code of Virginia, Section 23-7.4. Please answer all questions and provide any necessary explanations. All supporting documentation must be mailed or faxed by the appropriate deadline. Avoid delaying the determination process: mail or fax supporting documentation when this form is submitted. Do not both mail and fax. Do not submit original documents. You may be ineligible for in-state privileges if the Application and all supporting documents are not received by the appropriate deadline. Applications received after the first day of class of the semester for which in-state privileges are sought will not be reviewed. Supporting documents may be mailed to: Committee on Virginia Status, Office of Admission, P. O. Box 400160, Charlottesville, Virginia 22904 or faxed to: 434-982-2663.

Pursuant to Virginia law and University policy, you have the right to appeal if you are denied in-state privileges. Please notify, in writing, the Director of the Committee on Virginia Status if you intend to appeal. Notification must be received no more than fourteen calendar days after receipt of the denial or notice of appeal will not be timely and an appeal will not be heard.

Instructions:

All applicants must complete Section A. If you are under the age of 24 and listed as a dependent on the state and federal income tax returns of your parent or legal guardian, your parent or legal guardian must complete Sections B and C. If you are under the age of 24 and your parent, spouse or legal guardian has provided you substantial financial support during the past year, your parent, spouse or legal guardian must complete Sections B and C. If you are a financially independent student, regardless of age, and your parents or legal guardian do not claim you as a dependent for income taxes or have not provided you with substantial financial support during the past year, you must complete Sections A and C. If you are an emancipated minor under the age of 18, you must complete Sections A and C. If you are over the age of 24 and you are claimed as a dependent for income tax purposes by your parent or have received substantial financial support from your parent or spouse during the past year, your parent or spouse must complete Sections B and C. All applicants must sign and date the form. A parent, spouse or legal guardian must sign and date the form only if he or she completed Sections B and C on your behalf.

If you, the applicant, are not a United States citizen, please mail or fax a copy of your visa or Permanent Resident card. If your visa or Permanent Resident card is in process, you must mail or fax all available documents. If your parent, spouse or legal guardian is not a United States citizen and completes Sections B and C on your behalf, you must mail or fax a copy of his or her visa or Permanent Resident card. If your parent, spouse or legal guardian's visa or Permanent Resident card is in process, you must mail or fax all available documents. This Application will not be reviewed without this documentation.
