Envisioning Integrity: Examining a Community of Trust

a part of

Rejuvenating Ethics in the Liberal Arts
Association of American Colleges & Universities
Washington, D.C.
January 23, 2004

Presenters

Dave Wolcott
Special Assistant for University Relations &
Doctoral Candidate in Higher Education
wolcott@virginia.edu

Leanna Blevins
Special Assistant to the President &
Doctoral Candidate in Higher Education
leanna@virginia.edu

Ethics at the University of Virginia www.virginia.edu/uvaethics

Business Roundtable Institute for Corporate Ethics
Center for Biomedical Ethics
Center for Ethics, Capital Markets & Political Econ.
Center for the Study of Leadership & Ethics
Envisioning Integrity
Ethics in Engineering
Ethics in Nursing

Honor Committee
Humanities in Medicine / The Medical Center Hour
Institute for Environmental Negotiation
Institute for Law, Psychiatry & Public Policy
Institute for Practical Ethics & Public Life
Olsson Center for Applied Ethics
Undergraduate Bioethics Major

Envisioning Integrity
www.virginia.edu/envisioningintegrity

Mission: to expose the entire University community to sets of experiences in which they confront, question, and reflect on honor, comprised of integrity and trust, as a core value underpinning all University life.

Packet Contents

Executive Summary: Interim Report of Activities of the Envisioning Integrity Team
Chart: The Collaborative Model
Chart: Conceptual Approach
Article: Envisioning Integrity – Integrating Ethics into U.Va. Life
Website: Envisioning Integrity