Call for Arts Proposals

PROPOSALS FOR EVENTS DUE OCTOBER 13, 2014.
*Limited funding is available to support 4-5 arts proposals. For funding consideration, please submit your proposal no later than the deadline. Additionally, the IEW Planning Committee strongly encourages you to submit proposals as early as possible to ensure sufficient time for planning and marketing.

International Education Week, November 16-22, 2014, is an opportunity to celebrate the benefits of international education and exchange worldwide. This joint initiative with the U.S. Department of State and the U.S. Department of Education promotes and supports programs that prepare Americans for a global environment and attract future leaders from abroad to study, learn, and exchange experiences in the United States. Founded in 2000, International Education Week is now celebrated in more than 100 countries. Lectures, panel discussions, films, artistic performances, and other activities centered on internationalizing U.Va. are welcome!

Plan Your Own International Education Event
The IEW Committee will help promote all approved events as a whole through online and print-based marketing materials several weeks prior to IEW. Event organizers should still coordinate, plan, and advertise their own specific event. Please note that all publicity needs to coordinate with the identity of IEW (colors, logos, etc.). The committee will email you a publicity folder that will include the official logo, flyer templates, and color codes.

Here are some sample ideas for Arts proposals:
- Art/Photography/Architecture Displays
- Dance Performances
- Drama Performances
- Martial Arts Demonstrations
- Poetry/Creative Writing Readings
- Film/Media/Video Showings
- Music Performances

All those interested in proposing an event should complete an event proposal form no later than October 13, 2014 to ensure inclusion in print materials. All submissions after October 13th will only be included on the IEW website and Facebook page.

For questions, please email Merav Frazier at mfrazier@virginia.edu.